Concerning Soil Tillage

After the ground is plowed, it should be disced and harrowed until all lumps are finely pulverized. This is because the delicate plant roots cannot penetrate hard lumps and are, therefore, deprived of much plant food. Tillage increases the availability of plant food elements by changing the arrangements of soil particles and bringing together those that have not before been in contact. It also changes the relation of the soil with air, water, salts and acids in the soil, making available plant food that would otherwise remain dormant.

SPLENDID MESSAGE

"Songs In the Night" Was the Theme of Dr. Aultman's Sermon Last Night At Third Street M. E. Church.

A good sized audience again greeted Dr. Aultman last night at the Third Street M. E. church. The theme of the message was "Songs In the Night," and the text was found in Acts 16:25. "And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises unto God, and the prisoners heard them."

Dr. Aultman's portrayal of the scene in the prison when the earthquake delivered Paul and Silas, was very vivid and he said that many people were asking the same question as the jailer, "What shall I do to be saved?" when he found that the prisoners had not escaped, but were having a song and prayer service in the prison. His answer to the question was based on trusting in the Lord Jesus Christ and keeping the Ten Commandments. He showed very plainly how many people were breaking many or all of the commandments when they might contend that they obey all or nearly all of them. He stressed the fact that as a breaker of a PART of the law was as much a sinner in the sight of God as much as a breaker of all the law. He said that there were too many people out of Christ who were saying, "I am just as good as half the people in church." He said that this was "quite true, but what about the other half?"

The afternoon meetings begin every afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. These meetings are being better attended now and are quite helpful. These services last about forty-five minutes.

The evening services begin at 7:30 o'clock. The song and prayer service last for half an hour. Tonight Dr. Aultman will sing a solo, "My Mother's Hands." Come out to all of these meetings, they will do you good. The speaker is earnest and consecrated in his work and his strong gospel messages are gaining a way into the hearts and souls of his hearers.

WHERE WILL IT LEAD?

There are statements in the telegrams from England that there is a public demand that the officers and crews of submarines that destroy merchant ships and kill non-combatants shall be treated as pirates.

It is a reflection on the pirates of old to denominate this course of the German submarine navy piracy. It is a slander upon Captain Kidd and his confederates to group them with these modern murderers. But the officers of the submarines are not the ones primarily responsible for this course; it is the men higher up who direct the policy of the German navy that should in the court of nations and at the bar of God be held responsible for these murders.

It has heretofore been held that killing disabled soldiers, killing or attacking harmless private enemy individuals, unjustified destruction of private property are acts unauthorized and the perpetrator is punishable as a criminal instead of as a soldier. But it has always been also held that if officers or soldiers committed such acts in obedience to orders the punishment should rest not upon the subordinate, but upon the superior officer. So those higher officers who inaugurated and direct the present policy of the German submarine fleet are the ones who should be, and at the court of public opinion will be held responsible for these crimes.

The Berlin war office announced a policy of reprisal for the destruction of cities and estates in that part of Germany held by the Russians. Are the allied nations to inaugurate a policy of reprisal for the wanton murder of defenseless men and women? Are officers of the German army and navy captured in warfare to be held responsible for the acts of the submarine fleet? They are as justly responsible as are the officers of the submarines who commit the acts, and if such a policy as has been pursued by the German submarines is to be continued it is more than possible that some such policy of reprisal will be inaugurated by the allies.—Lexington Herald.

ROOSEVELT FOR EITHER BURTON OR BORAH.

Former Senator Burton of Ohio is receiving a considerable amount of attention these days—in both clubs and hotels, where politicians of national renown are wont to foregather—because his name has been advanced for the Presidency as one of the favored Republicans of the Roosevelt-Progressive wing of the party. It is said to be taken for granted by well informed leaders—that the Colonel will be found in the ranks of his old party next year. In New York and elsewhere in the discussion heard over coffee and cigars regarding the 1916 national campaign he (the Colonel) is regarded as a factor that must be reckoned with, but at the same time the disposition is to discourage any suggestion that he should be given a predominant seat in the councils. To the ranks he will be as welcome as the proverbial flower in May. "But just think of the former President being chained in the background," as an old Republican war horse put it, for it is surmised that once he got back into camp with the faithful the influence of his strong personality would be soon felt. On the other hand, many well informed Republicans in this state even look upon him as a "harmonizer." Anyway, the gossip now going the rounds is that he would be inclined to support any Progressive Republican for President. Besides Senator Burton he looks with favor upon Senator Borah, of Idaho, and Senator Weeks of Massachusetts.—New York Dispatch.

BOOZE-ETYMOLOGY.

The recent death of a Philadelpha distiller named E. C. Booz, caused his fellow-townsmen to revive the legend that the word "booze" is derived from his name. It looks like a very fine bit of alcoholic etymology, until you look it up and learn that the poet, Keats, before Mr. Booz was born, wrote of Robin Hood and Maid Marion "howsing from horn and can." The playwright Sheridan used it before that, and Massinger, a contemporary of Shakespeare, lamented, "No house—Nor no tobacco?" Spelling has varied, but the word—which isn't slang at all—seems to be nearly as old as the practice.—Owensboro Messenger.

THE PRICE OF TOES HAS RIZ.

At Richmond, Va., the Chesapeake & Ohio railway will have to pay L. J. Jones $8,000 for the loss of one of his big toes when he was in charge of a "dead" engine being transported from the local plant of the American Locomotive Works to Columbus, O., a jury decided. Jones sued for $15,000. It was at Ashlandf Ky., that the accident occurred which cost him his toe.

EARLY STRAWS.

Although they still clamor for equal rights, the women folk now have more rights than men. For instance, the women are wearing straw hats now, but the men don't dare to.—Atchison Globe.

UNIVERSAL PAPER MONEY.

It seems that the world is coming gradually to the idea that paper should be used as money instead of gold. It is reported in the Wall street papers that large amounts of gold are being stowed away for banks in South America and elsewhere instead of shipping it across the ocean. The fear of German submarines and commerce raiders is the cause. It is called "ear marking" the gold so that it will not be touched except on order of the far away South American owner. The latest illustration of this is the "ear marking" by the Bank of England of a considerable sum in gold for the Argentine republic to be held for the credit of Argentine banks in payment for shipments of wheat. By setting the gold aside in London it becomes an available asset of the Argentine banks, without being subjected to danger on the high seas arising from roving German warships.

The shipping of gold across the Atlantic in boxes that were never opened, has often been commented upon. An instance lately was recorded of unworn gold sovereigns that had been received by the Bank of England. The boxes had the labels of the Bank of England put upon them years ago and also the German brands showing that they had been part of the war fund that Bismarck started. All these years the sovereigns had laid in these boxes and had been shipped many times. There has been a great deal of "ear marking" of gold in London lately, mostly belonging to British dependencies, and recently the same policy has been adopted in regard to other countries.

The significance of this is that it marks the adoption of the service of the economists of many years ago. They suggested that as gold was universally used as money that there should be an international gold fund against which certificates might be issued, which could be transferred from one financial center to another without the physical movement of the gold. The world has adopted many populist ideas and in a few years it may adopt this one. Government certificates would then be the only money of commerce.—Portsmouth Blade.

A FALLEN IDOL.

We hate to say it, but our furry friend, the groundhog, is a fallen idol. There was no sun whatever on groundhog day, and February was a mild month in which all of us unfeignedly rejoiced. But the mercury standing between 26 and 30 the last week in March will not do. Mr. Groundhog! You simply can not get by with it and retain standing in the community. Nearly two months have passed since you promised that there would not be six more weeks of winter, and here we are needing ear bobs and looking sadly at a diminishing coal pile at a time when we should be hoeing in the garden and spraying the rose bushes. It is an ugly word to use, Mr. Groundhog, but you are a liar.—Frankfort State Journal.

MASON COUNTY MUST GET IN LINE.

Counties in every part of the state are asking for state aid for roads and voting heavy bond issues. The plans for good roads are being carried out with the greatest possible engineering caution and will mean that in a few years Kentucky will be transformed from a state of poor roads into the front rank of the states which have permanent highways. And with permanent highways will come all the advantages of better schools, of easier markets, higher prices for crops and increased land values. Daviess county is preparing for a $600,000 bond issue, and it will doubtless carry overwhelmingly, so much has the sentiment against bond issues changed in a few years.—Henderson Gleaner.

GUIDEPOSTS FOR ROADS.

While we are talking about improved highways, would it not be a good idea to take some steps to add to the comfort and convenience of travel over the roads we now have by placing guideposts at all intersecting points so that the stranger traveling through our country could be saved from confusion and annoying delays?—Lexington Leader.

WAR ON ILLITERACY WILL PROBABLY START IN JULY.

The campaign of a hundred orators in behalf of the plan of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission to eradicate illiteracy from the state will start probably in July, about the time the rural schools open, and continue throughout the school year.

Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart is working out the details. Congressman W. J. Fields has consented to do a month's work speaking, and only one date in his own district.

THE GARBAGE QUESTION

And the City Dump Are Serious Things and Must Be Gravely Considered and Wisely Solved.

One of the most important meetings called for this season is that of the Board of Health with the Propositions and Grievances Committee of the City Council to provide ways and means of disposing of the city's garbage.

Just stop and think a few moments, gentlemen, if you can conceive of a more damnable curse to our city than to have a garbage dump right in its center—a disease breeder and a fly-germinator of the highest magnitude, the stench from which at times reaches high heaven, and in order to get to and from the business district, fully one-half the citizens are compelled to wade through this filthy, stinking place daily, no matter what route they take.

Scientific men tell us that the only life-sustaining element that man can not use to excess is pure, fresh air. Therefore, the days of miracles have not passed, judging from the past fact that this city has not been visited by an epidemic of some disease caused by the lack of pure, fresh air.

Where will you find another city the size of dear old Maysville with a public garbage dump in its center, where fifth of all kin is thrown daily?

Isn't it about time the authorities were getting together and taking some action that will do away with the dump on both sides of Second street extension?

The City Council several years ago passed an ordinance making it a fineable offense for any person to throw garbage in the streets, alleys or over this dump, but made no provision whatever to get rid of the refuse, and when a member of that Council was asked what the people were to do with their garbage, was answered by a wink of his eye, and it seems as though the officials have been winking their eyes ever since, as that ordinance is just as much a law today as it was when it passed by Council.

Just at this season of the year, when everything is taking on new life and the accumulations of the winter are being gotten rid of by the thrifty housewife, it seems that some action by the authorities looking to the disposal of garbage other than dumping it in the heart of the city would be most appropriate.

Let the Board of Health and the City Council get together and make Maysville the cleanest, healthiest city in the Ohio valley.

It can be done, and The Ledger is for this move.

CITY POUND BUILT.

SPORT LETTER.

Cincinnati, April 8, 1915.

Before another week rolls around, the baseball championship season of 1915 will have been launched in the two big leagues—the National and the American. Here in Cincinnati interest is as great as ever, despite the fact that the local club finished in last place in 1914. The changes made in the lineup of the Reds for the year promises to work out wonderfully well, there being no department of the team that has not been greatly bolstered up, with the natural result that the aggregation, under the able leadership of Manager Herzog, is expected to show a vast improvement over last season's form. The southern training trip welded the team together into a machine that can hit, run bases and field with strength and intelligence; and if the pitching comes up to expectations, there is little doubt that Manager Herzog's prediction of a first division finish will be realized.

Locally, the opening of the season is set for next Wednesday, April 14, when Fred Clarke and his Pirate crew from Pittsburgh will assist the Reds in trying off the lid. While the demand for reserved seats for the opening game has been greater than ever, there still remain a number of good seats at $1, which may be secured by writing to the Cincinnati Baseball Club, Higgins Block, or Henry Stratus, Fifth and Walnut streets. The team which Manager Herzog will introduce on this occasion will differ materially from the opener of last season. Herzog at short, and possibly Tom Clarke behind the bat, will be the only members of the 1914 aggregation in the usual position. Mollwitz at first, Olsen at second, Leach, Griffith, Twombly and Wingo, outfielders, all have been added since the beginning of last season; while Heinie Groh, who was the team's regular second baseman, now is cavoring at third.

There is at least one department in which the Reds excel any team in either of the big leagues, and that is in the matter of catchers. Charlie Dooin, Tom Clarke and Ivy Wingo would be considered first string backstops with any team, while Mike Gonzalez lacks only the experience to make him as high class a man as the other three. It is because of this plethora of catchers, and the fact that Wingo is a magnificent hitter and base runner, that Manager Herzog is developing the former Cardinal wind-paddler into an outfielder. However, he will always be available for backstop duty, thereby fortifying the Reds better in this department than any team in either league.

More horses are in training on the eastern tracks this spring than at any time in the past several years. This indicates that the owners of thoroughbreds are confident that the revival of racing last year, even under restricted conditions, was the beginning of a permanent establishment of interest in the "sport of kings," and that the game will have a greater following this year than at any time since the legislative blight hit it in the state of New York some seven years ago. While there is no definite indication that any of the old tracks, heretofore out of commission, will be added to the list of active operatives, it is certain that those which co-operate will have longer seasons, more and better horses and larger stakes and purses.

Rev. H. B. Wilhoite will preach at the Dover Baptist church next Tuesday evening, April 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam N. True and family returned from Maysville Saturday to again take up their residence in Dover.

Rev. R. E. Boggs, the blind Presbyterian minister, will preach at the Baptist church Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening.

With the button factory running full force with a prospect for orders sufficient to keep the wheels rolling, business looks brighter in old Dover.

Struck More Gas.

A report comes from the gas well being sunk by the Ohio Valley Oil and Gas Company, near Brooksville, to the effect that the flow is getting stronger as the well goes deeper, the pressure now being strong enough to throw the water out of the well, and to lift the drill, which is now coming into the Trenton rock. There is every indication that well defined gas territory will be opened by this well.

There are no points of the compass on the charter of true patriotism—Robert C. Wintthrop.

WILL AWARD CONTRACT

For the Building of the Chesapeake & Ohio Extension on Friday.

Columbus, O.—Positive denial by M. J. Caples, vice president of the C. & O. railroad, that the company contemplated abandoning for the present the building of the twenty-eight miles of track at Sciotoville, near the Ohio river, owing to the present financial situation, were made.

Mr. Caples declared the twenty-eight miles of track will be built, commencing thirty days after the contract is awarded, next Friday, and that the money is on hand to pay for it.

Mr. Caples and his associates on the C. & O. will award the contract some time Friday at White Sulphur, Va. A double track bridge, costing one and a half millions, is now being built over the Ohio river to connect with the track at Sciotoville, a suburb of Portsmouth.

HEROISM

Of Twelve-Year-Old Boy Saves Lives of Five When Fire Is Discovered In Home.

Cynthiana, Ky.—The heroism of Aaron S. Ashbrook, 12 years old, saved the lives of his mother, his grand, mother, two sisters and his uncle, George Ashbrook, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, when they were trapped in the second story of their burning home.

Escape was cut off by means of the stairway and the little fellow leaped from the second-story window, and, running to a barn, secured a ladder, which he placed to the window, and the inmates of the house escaped without injury, with the exception of Mrs. Mary Gray, the aged mother of Mrs. Ashbrook, who fell from the ladder and was badly injured.

GOOD YEAR FOR POTATOES.

This will be a good year to raise a few more Irish potatoes than you expect to use at home. The greatest potato growing nations in the world are at war, and from all indications, Irish potatoes will bring the highest price this fall that they have brought in years. But if you can't raise some to sell, raise enough for your own use anyway. They are easy to raise and easy to save and if you have to buy this fall, you will remember the price a long time.

Fresh stable manure is sure to make scabby potatoes, and scabby potatoes have no commercial value and they are hard to save. Rotten straw is the best fertilizer known of for Irish potatoes. In addition to the strength it gives the soil, it keeps the land from packing, and that is very important. The straw can either be plowed under, broadcast or strewn in the furrow where the potatoes are planted. However, we prefer the first method.—Exchange.

To Ask For Local Option Election.

At a meeting at the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon it was decided to present a petition to Council asking for a local option election.

PAROLE OF BEACH HARGIS SOUGHT.

An appeal for the parole of Beach Hargis, who is serving a life sentence for killing his father, James Hargis, in Breathitt county, was made before the Board of Prison Commissioners at Frankfort by his mother, his uncle, A. H. Hargis, A. F. Byrd, of Lexington, and Floyd Day of Winchester. The board, however, did not act upon his case. Hargis has been in prison nearly five years, and is steward in the hospital.

NO DUCK SHOOTING.

Until the Supreme Court of the United States passes upon the constitutionality of the migratory bird law, there will be no spring duck shooting in this vicinity.

Arkansas and Kansas declared the law unconstitutional and the United States Court of North Dakota declared it constitutional and now the matter goes to the United States Supreme Court.

THE WAY OUT

Change of Food Brought Success and Happiness.

An ambitious but delicate girl, after failing to go through school on account of nervousness and hysteria, found in Grape-Nuts the only thing that seemed to build her up and furnish her the peace of health.

"From infancy," she says, "I have not been strong. Being ambitious to learn at any cost I finally got to the High School but soon had to abandon my studies on account of nervous prostration and hysteria.

"My food did not agree with me, and I grew thin and despondent. I could not enjoy the simplest social affair for I suffered constantly from nervousness in spite of all sorts of medicines.

"This wretched condition continued until I became interested in the letters of those who had cases like mine and who were being helped by eating Grape-Nuts.

"I had little faith, but procured a pkg. and after the first dish I experienced a peculiar satisfied feeling that I had never gained from any ordinary food. I slept and rested better that night and in a few days began to grow stronger.

"I had a new feeling of peace and restfulness. In a few weeks, to my great joy, the headaches and nervousness left me and life became bright and hopeful. I resumed my studies and later taught ten months with ease—using Grape-Nuts every day. I am now the mistress of a happy home, and the old weakness has never returned."

Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read, "The Road to Wellville," in pkg. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true and full of human interest.

A DAILY LESSON IN HISTORY

One Hundred Years Ago Today.

1815—The government was fitting out a squadron of warships at New York, to dispatch to Algiers, with which country we had declared war.

Seventy-five Years Ago Today.

1840—Spring rains and melting snows caused rivers to overflow throughout a large part of the country. In Rhode Island eighteen lives were lost and in the western states, much damage was done to property.

Fifty Years Ago Today.

1865—The war between the states was virtually ended by the surrender of General Lee's army to General Grant at Appomattox Court House, Va.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

1890—The Dominion government decided to renew the modus vivendi with the United States for another year.

WILLARD AND MARY PICKFORD MAKING ALL THE MONEY.

Jess Willard's victory is worth approximately half a million dollars to him in the next two years!

And that's more real money than ever a man made in the fight game.

John L. Sullivan, the greatest money-maker prize fighting has ever known, never equaled that, regardless of the oft-told tales of the millions he spent. Just before the Johnson-Jeffries battle Sullivan said:

"Johnson or Jeffries stand to win $250,000. Why, all my fights together didn't come to that."

Corbett never reached that amount. Fitzsimmons or Jeffries didn't, and outside of the $135,000 or so he pulled out of the Jeffries battle (his share of the $101,000 purse and the moving pictures), Johnson hasn't averaged as well as any one of half a dozen lightweight.

How is Willard going to get it? Why, the stage, of course.

CHINESE COMING TO STUDY TRADE.

Shanghai, China, April 9.—For the purpose of studying American industrial methods and gathering trade ideas, a deputation of wealthy Chinese merchants sailed today for San Francisco.

The deputation is made up of nearly thirty members and includes representatives of the principal cities of China.

After remaining a week in San Francisco the Chinese will start on a two months' tour that will take them to many of the leading cities of the United States. The visit of the Chinese merchants is the result of a tour of China made in 1910 by a party of Pacific coast merchants and manufacturers.

The Chinese accepted an invitation then to visit the United States two years later. War disturbances and the change in government made the trip impossible until this year.

SEMI-CENTENNIAL OF APPOMATTOX.

Washington, April 9.—The best part of war, the memory of the triumphs which led to a lasting peace, was widely celebrated today in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the surrender of General Lee's army at Appomattox. This event is generally regarded as the end of the war between the states, though desultory fighting was continued farther south for several weeks more. There was no official observance of the semi-centennial today, but wherever a handful of war veterans could be assembled, the anniversary was observed with addresses and the exchange of personal recollections of the great struggle which ended with the surrender of the Army of Northern Virginia in the little town of Appomattox fifty years ago.

BIRTHDAY OF NOTED INVENTOR.

Schenectady, N. Y., April 9.—Twenty-five years ago today a penniless German immigrant, and now recognized as the foremost living protagonist of inventing as a branch of manufacturing. Such are the polar extremes in the career of Dr. Charles P. Steinmetz, inventor of extraordinary talent, professor of engineering at Union University and chief consulting engineer of the General Electric Company, whose fiftieth birthday today was marked by the receipt of congratulatory messages from Thomas A. Edison, Dr. Graham Bell and other great American scientists and inventors.

SOME RAT KILLING.

Mr. G. H. Ritchie, of Barterville, and five of his neighbors, together with three rat terrier dogs, killed one day the past week 113 rats while moving some rye straw from a loft in the feed barn. This is some rat killing for one day and would doubtless set a high mark for "Rat Killing day," observed for several years in Nicholas county, same being originated by the late G. R. Keller—Carlisle Advocate.

How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health for 14 Years.

Shippensburg, Pa.—"It was several years ago that I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I then suffered terribly every month. My husband bought me a bottle of it and it helped me right away. Then after my second child was born I had a female trouble very badly and I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and in a short time was cured and have been in excellent health since. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

CARLISLE MAN SELECTED AS EXAMINER FOR SPRING EXAMINATIONS.

(Carlisle Mercury.)

Prof. R. Dean Squires has received the following letter from Superintendent W. J. Caplinger, of the Maysville city schools:

Maysville, Ky., April 5, 1915. Supt. R. Dean Squires, Carlisle, Ky.

Dear Mr. Squires—Our regular spring examinations come off Saturday, May 1. You are expected to furnish questions in the subjects, geography, physiology and hygiene, theory and practice. It is the pleasure of the board and myself that you help conduct the examination. Make out at least enough questions for twelve applicants.

I noticed in our paper Saturday that you have as your first assistant one of our young men, James P. Threlkeld. While I do not know very much about James, yet, judging from what I know of the rest of his family, and especially his sister, Miss Hilda, who is the head of the English Department, I would say that you have made a successful catch. I feel quite sure that after the novelty of the work wears off and he gets settled down to regular routine work, that you will find him painstaking, careful, industrious and proficient.

Kindest regards to Mrs. Squires and best wishes for the success of you and Threlkeld, I am,

Your friend,

W. J. CAPLINGER,

Superintendent City Schools.

Advocate, a breezy four-page paper of school notes, issued by the students of the Maysville High School, and edited by Myron Merz and Charles Downing, made its semi-monthly appearance yesterday. There are eight assistant editors.

The M. H. S. baseball team will open the season this afternoon at the East End park, when they lock horns with the fast Jersey Ridge Reds. Batteries—M. H. S., Hunt and Shea; Jersey Ridge, Dice and Dice.

The class of 1915 will give their class play, "Three Blind Mice," to night at the auditorium.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

London, April 8.—Although she has concentrated her army along the Austrian border, and her navy within striking distance of the Adriatic, Italy is still endeavoring to exhaust every means which may lead to a peaceful settlement with Austria of the questions of territorial concessions.

Advices from Rome indicate that even should Italy become embroiled in the war, she will not strike for some time. It is believed in Rome that the decisive struggle among the nations now at war will not begin before the early summer, which would allow Italy a considerable interval in which to decide upon her policy.

The Austrian correspondent of a Turin newspaper telegraphs that he has reliable information that there is a basis for the reports that Austria is seeking peace with the Triple Entente powers, the better to deal with Italy. Semi-official negotiations, he says, have been begun.

5,950,000 Men Lost—Cost $8,400,000,000

The losses of men during the first six months of the war were estimated by the military expert of a Rome newspaper at 5,950,000. The cost of the war in that period is placed at $8,400,000,000.

General Pau, of the French army, who has reached Naples on his way from Petrograd and the Balkan capitals, corroborated the reports that the allies are preparing for a combined land and sea attack on the Dardanelles. When this attack is made the general says, the Turkish fortifications must fall.

More Dope From Petrograd.

Petrograd, April 8.—The advance of the Russians in the Carpathians has cut the Austrian army under General Boeravitch in two places. The eastern wing of this army is in a precarious position. The Russians have captured Smolnik, east of Luptok pass. The Russians have also thrown back the Austrians in the district of Bartfeld and in the district of Luptok. Having advanced through the Rostock Pass, they have forced a wedge between the Austrian armies.

Smolnik controls the only road through the Beskid mountains, between Mezolaborez and Uzok, a distance of sixty miles.

Belgians Declare They Have Won a Victory Over Germans.

Paris, April 8.—Twelve women and children were killed and forty-eight others injured by bombs dropped by Austrian aviators in the market place at Podgoritz, Montenegro, according to a Cetinje dispatch to the Havas Agency. Many buildings were destroyed by the missiles, seven of which were dropped from an aeroplane.
